

Margaret Ann Williams Becomes Bride Of Freeman McKee in Ceremony Here

A MID-SUMMER ceremony, solemnized at 4 o'clock yesterday, united Margaret Ann Williams and Freeman McKee of Rocky, Oklahoma.

The rites were exchanged in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Williams with Don H. Morris, president of Abilene Christian college, reading the service.

The bridal pair came to Abilene from Rocky the middle of the week to take part in pre-nuptial activities and wore a brooch, a family heir-

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street frock of sky-blue crepe and accessories of deeper blue. She carried a white Bible and an orchid with lilies - of - the-valley showered with streamers of satin. For something old, she carried a Bible belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Olds, and wore a brooch, an family heirloom, once belonging to her great-grandmother, Mrs. James Gilliland. For something borrowed, she wore a dinner ring belonging to Mrs. Lloyd Anderson. This ring has been worn by nine members of the PALS club of which Mrs. Anderson and the bride were members when they were in A.C.C. Mrs. McKee was the tenth member to use this jewelry in a wedding.

BRIDESMAID

Attending as bridesmaid was her sister, Bettye Faye Williams. Her frock was dusty pink and her accessories brown. She carried an arm bouquet of roses and daisies.

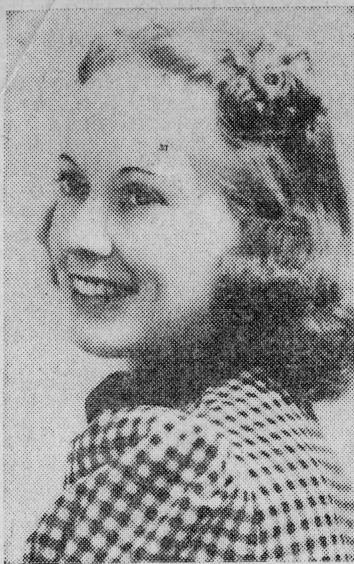

Trueman McKee, brother of the bridegroom was best man. Ann Overstreet, the bride's niece was flower girl. Candles at the improvised altar, adorned with zinnias, daisies and fern, were lit by Marie Overstreet, another niece.

Sweetest Story Ever Told, was sung by Mrs. A. E. Symeox of Cordell, Okla.
